

RETURNS

We hope you are delighted with your order but we do understand that sometimes you will want to return an item.

If you are not completely satisfied with your purchases we will happily exchange or refund any unused items with your receipt within 30 days. Goods must be returned in the same condition they were sold, including all original packaging.

If for any reason your goods have been damaged in transit, we will either refund your goods or replace it, if the item is in stock, once the original goods have been returned to us.

The return of goods is our customer's responsibility.
